

Mercy EMS/Lifeline in conjunction with

National Association of Air Medical Communication Specialists

Will be presenting a

Certified Flight Communicator Course

April 26-27, 2013

Course will be presented at

Mercy EMS Education Center

1407 E. Saint Louis Street

Springfield, MO 65802

Course fee is $155.00 members (NAACS) / $200.00 non members

For more information

Email

Clayton Hummer @ clayton.hummer@mercy.net

417.425.7133 cell

Certified Flight Communicator

The Certified Flight Communicator Course is a 2-day class designed for communication specialists in the Air Medical field.

Topics covered include Flight Following and Navigation, Map Reading skills, Aviation weather, PAIP, Stress Management, Public Relations, and Medical Terminology to name a few.

Following successful completion of the exam,

Status as a Certified Flight Communicator is earned.